- Morning commute – every six minutes, between 7:00 a.m. and 9:30 a.m.
- Lunchtime commute – every 15 minutes, between 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 a.m.
- Evening commute – every 10 minutes, between 3:30 p.m. and 7:00 p.m.

What does it cost to ride? Nothing – the service is FREE!

How do I tell which shuttle is a Blue Line and which is a Green Line? There is a sign on the front and curb side of each vehicle. This sign indicates which route the shuttle is running. When in doubt – just ask the driver!

Where is the stop at Resurgens Plaza?

The shuttle stop is located in the traffic circle, immediately adjacent to the entrance to Atlanta Plaza which is immediately accessible by the sky bridge between the two buildings. It is marked by a “the buc” signpost (Stops Green #2 and Blue #13).

What is the difference between the Blue Line and the Green Line?

Both shuttles travel to the same locations. The only difference in the two routes is from Resurgence Plaza the Green line goes directly to Target (then onto Phipps Plaza, then onto Alliance Center and so on). Meanwhile, the Blue line travels directly to the Lenox MARTA station (then onto Lenox Square food court, then onto JW Marriott and so on). Depending upon where you need to go, you should take one line over the other as it will get you to your destination quicker.

What is the Lunchtime Express Shuttle? Between 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m., one Green line shuttle and one Blue line shuttle will operate to help you run your lunchtime errands. The shuttles will run every fifteen minutes.

What do I do if I lost something on the shuttle? Call 770-209-3318 and tell them what you have lost – if it has been found on the shuttle we will return it to you.

Who do I contact to comment about the service? E-mail is the best way to register complaints – it allows us to track your exact concerns and document them appropriately. E-mail us at info@bucride.com or if you need to talk to someone call 404-812-RIDE.

How can I get more route maps? E-mail us at info@bucride.com or call us at 404-812-RIDE. Let us know how many you need and we will get them out to you.

Do the shuttles run on holidays? Shuttles will run regular routes every day with the exception of Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, July 4th, Memorial Day, New Year's Day and Labor Day.

Who is paying for the shuttle? $1.5 million of local tax revenues collected by the Buckhead Community Improvement District was used to leverage $4.7 million of federal transportation funds to support the first three years of operation.

Will a shuttle stop if I flag it down but am not at a stop? No. Due to liability issues, the vehicles will not be allowed to pick up or drop off passengers at locations other than specifically designated shuttle stops.

Can I wait inside the building lobby if the weather is bad? Yes, the stops were specifically located so you can do this – just make sure to catch the driver's attention to let them know you are boarding – sometimes you may not be easy to spot!

What do the numbers on the stop signs mean? The printed route maps show numbered stops. These numbers correspond to the numbers indicated on the shuttle stop signs. Because both the Blue Line and Green Lines use many of the same stops, the signs have two numbers located in the lower corners – one for the Blue Line (blue number) and one for the Green Line (green number).
